

68. The Owl.

By Jessie Gaynor & Alice Riley

There's a wise old owl in the tree, in the tree, And he sits quite still all the

The first system of the musical score for 'The Owl'. It features a vocal line in treble clef and a piano accompaniment in grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is B-flat major (two flats) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are: 'There's a wise old owl in the tree, in the tree, And he sits quite still all the'.

day, And his big round eyes stare at you and at me In a most sur - pris - ing

The second system of the musical score. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: 'day, And his big round eyes stare at you and at me In a most sur - pris - ing'.

way. But when all the world goes to sleep at night And there is - n't a sin - gle

The third system of the musical score. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: 'way. But when all the world goes to sleep at night And there is - n't a sin - gle'.

ray of light, Mister Owl wakes up, spreads his wings for flight, To hoo! says the owl in the tree.

The fourth and final system of the musical score. The vocal line concludes with the lyrics: 'ray of light, Mister Owl wakes up, spreads his wings for flight, To hoo! says the owl in the tree.'