

Jesus Dies

The Jews had a trial. It was not a fair trial. They said that Jesus must die. They made fun of Him. They led Him outside the city, and there He died on the cross. Two men were also put on crosses by His side. The sky became dark. It was a very sad day. We love Him for what He did for us.

Alive Again!

Jesus died on Friday. Now it was Sunday. The women took spices to the tomb.

The stone had been rolled back. Jesus was gone! Two men in bright light stood beside them. The men told them that Jesus was alive again!

Later Mary saw Jesus and talked with Him. What a happy day!
