

Namaan

Naaman was a great man, but he had sores on his skin. Elisha told him to wash in the river seven times. At first, he would not go. He then went to the river. He went under the water one, two, three, four, five, six, and seven times. His sores were gone!

Three Brave Boys

The king wanted everyone to bow down to the idol made of gold. Three Hebrew boys would not bow down.

The king said, "Put them in the fire!"

Men threw them into the hot fire. The fire did not even burn them! God had sent His angel to help them.
