

Jesus and the Children

Little children were brought to Jesus. Mothers wanted Him to put His hands on them.

The helpers said, "Send those children away!"

Jesus said, " Let the little children come to Me. Everyone should be as they are."

He placed His hands on them and blessed them.

Two Sisters

Mary and Martha were sisters. Jesus was their best friend. Once He came to their house. Martha was very busy cooking the meal. Mary was busy hearing the words of Jesus.

Martha said, "Lord, tell her to help me."

Jesus said, "Only one thing is needed. Mary wants to hear My words. She has chosen what is better. "
