1. How did Alexander Graham Bell become interested in working with the deaf?
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

2. Tell about Bell's education.
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

3. How did Bell and his brother first create a speaking machine?
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

4. What did he give his wife Mabel for a wedding present? Why was that a good gift?
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

5. Who was Thomas Watson?
___________________________________________________________________________

6. Name two other people besides Bell who were trying to invent a telephone.
___________________________________________________________________________

7. How did the telephone patent benefit Bell?
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

8. What else did Bell invent besides the telephone?