

Laura Ingalls Wilder

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdingalls.htm>

Laura Ingalls was born in	Laura would describe things to her.
When she was seven, the family	decided to write down her childhood memories.
One summer Laura's Pa walked	wanted to adopt Laura, but Ma said , "No".
Mrs. Starr, a rich neighbor	200 miles to find a job.
When her sister Mary became blind	she was thirteen years old.
Laura began to teach when	the Big Woods in Wisconsin.
Laura married Almanzo Wilder	Rocky Ridge Farm.
Their baby Rose had to stay with her parents	who was ten years older.
Laura named their farm	received nearly a thousand cards, letters, and telegrams.
After her mother died, Laura	the Little House series of children's books.
Her writings became	moved to Minnesota to the Walnut Grove area.
On her 84th birthday Laura Ingalls Wilder	when Laura and Almanzo became ill with diphtheria.