

James Madison

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdmadis.htm>

James Madison was tutored
as a child was called Montpelier.

When Madison went to college

he finished in two years.

James Madison is called because he had studied a lot.

When he was eleven years old enjoyed entertaining in the White House.

In the government he first served

the Father of the Constitution.

People valued his ideas

Madison was sent to boarding school.

In 1809 Madison

because he was sickly.

Madison's wife Dolley

Dolley returned to Washington to live.

Madison's family estate

was elected President of the United States.

After her husband's death

he was the oldest of twelve children.

Madison's birthplace

was in Virginia.

In Madison's family

in the Continental Congress.