

George Washington

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdwash.htm>

George Washington became known as	he went to live with his half-brother Lawrence.
His family was originally	for seven or eight years.
George Washington had	"The Father of Our Country".
He attended school	from the country of England.
His favorite subject in school	was arithmetic.
When he was sixteen	a widow named Martha Custis.
Washington married	as President of the United States.
George and Martha	wanted to make Washington their king.
He once prevented a mutiny	never had children of their own.
To improve his manners	by telling the soldiers he would not accept his pay.
The people	he copied 110 rules written by a French priest.
He served eight years	five brothers and sisters.