

Mary McLeod Bethune

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdbethune.htm>

Mary McLeod's slave parents	free-born child of the McLeod's seventeen children.
Mary's brothers and sisters	a missionary in Africa.
Mary was the first	Bethune also opened a hospital.
In addition to starting a school	were sold when they became old enough to work.
When Mary began to learn numbers she	were owned by different masters.
She was able to go to school at Concord	a house for her aging parents.
Her goal was to become	because she was awarded a scholarship.
When she was teaching she bought	her maiden name to honor her father.
When she married she kept	realized her father was being cheated on his crops.
In a dream she saw Booker T. Washington	helped Bethune to build and support a school.
The second year after she started a school	handing her a huge diamond.
Several wealthy people	she had 100 girls attending.