

Albert Einstein

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdeinst.htm>

When Einstein was young he learned	brought science books to share with him.
As a child he was	the relation of mass to energy.
When he was six he was fascinated by	to play the violin.
His Uncle Jakob developed a	in order to move to Italy with his parents.
A medical student Max Talmey	love of learning in his nephew.
When they moved to Munich, Albert	a compass his father gave him.
He falsified a note from a doctor	he discussed the behavior of light.
After college he got a job	traveled at the speed of 186,000 miles a second.
In his paper about photoelectric law	the Germans stole his property and took away his citizenship.
His most famous paper explored	slow in development.
He concluded that light	at the Swiss Patent Office.
In 1933 while visiting the United States	was the only Jew in a Catholic school.