

Eleanor Roosevelt

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibderoos.htm>

Eleanor's mother was disappointed	be a delegate to the United Nations in London.
Eleanor was raised	at age 15 at the boarding school.
She first found acceptance and belonging	by her maternal grandmother.
She married Franklin Roosevelt	because her daughter was not pretty.
Her mother-in-law bought	who was a distant cousin.
Her husband Franklin became paralyzed	a house next door to Eleanor and her husband.
Eleanor's house in Hyde Park	President of the United States.
Franklin Roosevelt became governor	called "My Day".
In 1932 Franklin Roosevelt became	of New York.
Eleanor wrote a syndicated column	was called Val Kill Cottage.
She resigned her membership in the DAR	because they refused to let Marian Anderson perform.
Harry Truman asked her to	due to the disease polio.