

Frederick Douglass

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdfdoug.htm>

Frederick Douglass only saw	helped to form two black regiments.
Slave children had to go without clothing	friends raised money to purchase his freedom.
The slave master put tar on the fence	was similar to the feeding of pigs.
The feeding of the slave children	if their shirts wore out before allowance time.
Mrs. Auld in Baltimore	to teach other slaves to read and write.
Frederick bribed the poor white boys	copied letters from Webster's Spelling Book.
As a slave Douglass felt like	to keep the slaves out of the garden.
To learn how to write he	with bread to teach him to read.
Mr. Covey was cruel to him until	one day he fought back.
Douglass started a Sabbath school	his mother four or five times in his life.
After spending two years in Great Britain	a man in a pit with no ladder to get out.
During the Civil War Douglass	taught Frederick his ABCs.