

Kit Carson

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdkit.htm>

Kit Carson	started on "The Long Walk" relocation.
Carson joined a group of traders	to get provisions for themselves.
Carson was only	a Frenchman named Captain Shunan.
He once had a duel with	carry dispatches to Washington.
Carson's Indian wife	he burned their homes and crops.
He had seven children	with his wife Josefa.
He became a guide to John Fremont	all the men of an Apache tribe.
He was chosen to	was Waa-nibe or Grass Singing.
The Indians raided the settlers	never learned to read nor write.
Carson refused an order to kill	to map the Oregon Trail.
To make the Indians move	5 foot 6 inches tall, but he was brave.
Nine thousand Navajos	and moved to Sante Fe, New Mexico.