

Molly Pitcher

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdmolly.htm>

When Molly was 15 years old	as a gunner in the artillery division.
When Molly was past 70 years of age	awarded Molly an annuity.
After their marriage her husband	because of thirst.
The colonists	became a soldier
John served in the army	she rode on horseback.
When Molly went to see her husband	she worked as a domestic helper.
The battle of Monmouth	because Molly took over the firing of it.
When her husband was wounded	they ordered the cannon to be moved back.
The cannon was not moved	took place in the summertime.
Many soldiers died on the battlefield	did not want to be ruled by the English.
Molly helped the soldiers by	she rescued some children from a quarry.
The Pennsylvania Legislature	bringing them water in a pitcher.