

William Wilberforce

<http://gardenofpraise.com/ibdwilber.htm>

William Wilberforce was born	made the shipment of slaves unlawful.
When he was nine years old he	in Hull, England.
John Newton was a former	embraced a life of partying.
Newton would conduct	to devote his life to Christ and the cause of abolition.
William's mother was alarmed by	slave ship captain.
While he was in college William	went to live with his aunt and uncle.
His grandfather and his cousin	the evangelical Methodist teaching her son received.
When he was twenty-one years old William	thousands of slaves were rescued from ships.
During a tour of Europe he was convinced	interested William in Parliament.
He determined that he would use his public office	was elected to Parliament.
The Slave Trade Act in 1807	"parlor preaching" in his home for his friends.
After the passage of the Slave Trade Act	to bring about the freeing of the slaves.