Directions: Underline the words in the story as you find them, unscramble them and write them in the boxes below. Benjamin Banneker lived during the time of the Revolutionary War. He was very intelligent. When a friend loaned him a telescope and some books, he taught himself astronomy and mathematics. He printed almanacs to help the farmers grow their crops. Andrew Ellicott asked him to help with the survey of the capital city. He corresponded with Thomas Jefferson and worked for equality for African Americans.
