While Jesus is crossing town to visit with Jairus, the Ruler of the Synagogue, crowds are all around seeking healing. A woman with a bleeding problem slips up behind him. In her heart she knows if she can just "touch the hem of his clothing" she will be healed - so she did. Jesus, knowing that power surged out of him with that touch knew what had happened!

But to test his disciples he said, "Who touched me?"

The disciples said, "Lord, look at all this crowd. Who knows who touched you?"

Jesus healed the woman for her great and abiding, trusting faith! This lady had spent all her money on doctors in an effort to get the flow of blood stopped. She has great faith! How precious is her trust in our Lord. Let us always imitate it!
