As Jesus was returning to the city he was hungry. He saw a fig tree far off. He went over to it to see if there were any figs on it, even though it was not the season for figs. The tree had only leaves on it.

He said to the tree, "You will never again grow any fruit."

The next morning as they passed by the same tree it was withered and dried up. His disciples were shocked that it had died so quickly.

Jesus said to them, "If you have faith and don't doubt, you can do the same thing I did and even greater things. You can say to this mountain 'Get up and jump into the sea' and it will happen. If you have faith when you pray, you will be given whatever you ask for."
