Directions: Underline the words in the story as you find them, unscramble them and write them in the boxes below. Greg Mortenson was a mountain climber. Once while attempting to climb K2 in Pakistan he became lost. The people of the village of Korphe cared for him. He promised to return and build a school for them. It took a long time to raise the money, but Jean Hoerni endowed a foundation, the Central Asia Institute to build the schools. Now both boys and girls can go to school. Greg has built 130 schools in Pakistan and Afghanistan
